THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

INTRODUCTION

At all times relevant to this Superseding Indictment, unless otherwise indicated:

The Enterprise

1. La Mara Salvatrucha, also known as the MS-13, (hereinafter the “MS-13” or the “enterprise”) was a transnational criminal organization with members located throughout Long Island, New York, Queens, New York and elsewhere. Members and associates of the MS-13 have engaged in acts of violence, including murder, attempted murder, robbery, kidnapping and assault, as well as other criminal activity, including narcotics trafficking, extortion, witness tampering and witness retaliation.

2. The defendants JOSE MOISES BLANCO, also known as “Cuervo,” OSEAS GONZALEZ, also known as “Manota” and “Cordero,” JOSE JONATHAN GUEVARA-CASTRO, also known as “Suspechoso,” VICTOR LOPEZ-MORALES, also known as “Persa,” EVER MORALES-LOPEZ, also known as “Kien,” “Inke” and “White Boy,” DAVID SOSA-GUEVARA, also known as “Risky,” KEVIN TORRES, also known as “Quieto” and “Inquieto,” and KEVIN CUEVAS DEL CID, also known as “Creeper,” “Malcriado,” “Sombra,” “Vinky” and “Dabura” were members and associates of the MS-13.

3. The MS-13, including its leadership, membership and associates, constituted an “enterprise” as defined by Title 18, United States Code, Section 1961(4), that is, a group of individuals associated in fact. The enterprise constituted an ongoing organization whose members functioned as a continuing unit for a common purpose of achieving the objectives of the enterprise. The enterprise was engaged in, and its activities affected, interstate and foreign commerce.

Purposes of the Enterprise

4. The purposes of the enterprise included the following:
 - a. Promoting and enhancing the prestige, reputation and position of the enterprise with respect to rival criminal organizations.
 - b. Preserving and protecting the power, territory and criminal ventures of the enterprise through the use of intimidation, threats of violence and acts of violence, including assault and murder.
 - c. Keeping victims and rivals in fear of the enterprise and its members and associates.
 - d. Enriching the members and associates of the enterprise through criminal activity, including robbery, extortion and narcotics trafficking.
 - e. Ensuring discipline within the enterprise and compliance with the enterprise's rules by members and associates through threats of violence and acts of violence.

Means and Methods of the Enterprise

5. Among the means and methods by which the defendants and their associates conducted and participated in the conduct of the affairs of the enterprise were the following:
 - a. Members of the MS-13 and their associates committed, attempted to commit and threatened to commit acts of violence, including murder, attempted murder, robbery, kidnapping and assault, to enhance the enterprise's prestige and protect and expand the enterprise's criminal operations.

b. Members of the MS-13 and their associates used and threatened to use physical violence against various individuals, including members of rival criminal organizations and MS-13 members who violated the enterprise's rules.

c. Members of the MS-13 and their associates used, attempted to use and conspired to use robbery, extortion and narcotics trafficking as means of obtaining money.
